

AMMENDMENT TO THE CDC ARCHITECTURAL GUIDELINED

On July 8, 2008 the CDC revised Section VII J of the Architectural Guidelines regarding setback requirements to the following:

“Notwithstanding the CDC’s power to allow reasonable variances to the CDC Rules and Design Criteria, the CDC will NOT allow variances to any setback requirements in the CDC Rules and Design Criteria for any new construction. For the purposes of this Section VII,J. the term “new construction” shall mean the construction of a new house that is commenced after June 28, 2005”
