CDC-16 ENGINEER CERTIFICATION

The Community Design Committee administers the CDC Rules established in accordance with the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, which govern all land in Princeville at Hanalei. The Declaration requires that plans for Princeville residences be prepared by a Hawaii State licensed Engineer or Architect. The Rules specify that a certificate to this effect be submitted to the CDC.

Please have your Engineer complete this form and submit with the Preliminary package:

I am an Engineer/Architect licensed by the State of Hawaii. I have received a copy of the current CDC Rules and have incorporated that information into the design. I have visited the subject site prior to preparation of any drawings and made observations necessary to execute my design with cognizance of the surroundings and specific settings of the site. All drawings have been prepared under my supervision and direction and I acknowledge professional responsibility for the design and upon request, be available to meet with the CDC incident to the review of the building plan documents.
